NEW DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT AT ASSISTANCE DOG INSTITUTE

Wayne Mitchell was hired recently as the Director of Development at the Assistance Dog Institute. He will be implementing a new giving campaign and coordinating the efforts of the Fundraising Committee. Programs in need of funding include service dog training, K-9 support and cancer detection research

Mr. Mitchell's background includes work in science development at the Lawrence Berkeley National Lab and Sangano Biosciences. He has also worked at Chabot Space and Science Center and independent schools in San Francisco and Berkeley.
