New Dog Program Training Manager Monika Jud Joins Assistance Dog Institute

The Assistance Dog Institute has hired Monika Jud as their new Dog Program Training Manager. Monika graduated from the Institute in 2003 with an Associate of Science degree in Assistance Dog Education. For the past year she has been a trainer at Freedom Service Dogs in Denver, Colorado.

Monika grew up in Switzerland and has been in the United States for the last ten years. She has a background in many aspects of a canine career, including veterinary, kennels and grooming. Her new position involves the care and management of the breeders, puppies, and dogs in training, as well as all other aspects of kennel management. She is excited about her new position with the Assistance Dog Institute, and her involvement she'll have in helping to teach other service dog trainers.

The Assistance Dog Institute, located in Santa Rosa, is the only college in the world to offer Associate of Science degrees in Assistance Dog Education.
