PROJECT APPLAUSE BENEFIT

Santa Rosa, CA - August 1, 2006

The Assistance Dog Institute will be holding a musical fundraiser on Sunday, August 27 at 7:00 PM. Under the direction of Michael Van Why, the “Project Applause” performance will feature professional-quality singers with selections from timeless composers like Mozart, Schubert, and Brahms. This elegant performance will include a multimedia presentation to provide background information about the composers, musical style and historical context of each piece.

Tickets are $15, with all proceeds benefiting the Assistance Dog Institute. The concert will be held at the Veteran’s Memorial Building located at 282 S. High St. in Sebastopol. For tickets or other information, call the Assistance Dog Institute at 707/545-DOGS (3647).

The Assistance Dog Institute offers college degrees in Assistance Dog Education and Human-Canine Life Sciences, as well as certificate programs such as Social/Therapy training. They also place service dogs with people with disabilities. The Institute is celebrating it’s 15th anniversary this year.
