PUPPY RAISERS NEEDED

The Assistance Dog Institute has announced the need for foster homes for Golden Retriever service dog puppies in training. If you love dogs and have thought about volunteering to help others, this is a unique opportunity to share your home with “man’s best friend” for an important purpose.

A fenced yard and a willingness to transport the puppy to school on weekdays is necessary. It involves approximately a year-long commitment to love and socialize a puppy who will be placed as a service dog at about two years of age.

For more information on how you can be a part of “Helping Dogs Help People” contact Gay Courier at 916/971-3677 or gcurrier@macnexus.org.
